

Montana Even Start Programs

Currently, Montana has nine Even Start Family Literacy programs. All programs are located in high-poverty areas. The Brockton, Browning and Crow Agency programs are in elementary schools. The Butte, Hardin, and Missoula are at the school district's adult basic education site. The Lincoln County Programs are home based. The Livingston program serves families in their low-income health clinic. Miles City serves families at their Head Start program site.